QUARANTINE DIARY

---

Oct 26 – Nov 04, 10 days in total. We have experienced a lot, and we are very grateful to the school for taking care of us, sending us meals and fruits, and always being grateful. And sonny and I also experienced the feeling of not seeing each other for the first time. It is also considered to pave the way for the future separation in advance and feel it. Experienced the iron gate tears, through the fence to sonny send meals, hold hands, talk. Of course, thankful that the security uncle and the teacher on duty did not stop us. There were some not so pleasant in the middle, but it all passed. Yesterday's Birthday's Eve vigil, very good, everything is fine. Blessed be the mystery of love and best wishes to you.

XINXIANG TRIP

---

Nov 27–Nov29, 3 days in total. Although it was only 3 days, we experienced a lot. On the first day, we escaped Kaifeng. We hastily packed our luggages, mailed our clothes, opened leave slips, stored my electric car, carpooled back to Xinxiang and booked a Bed and Breakfast. We felt very tired, but the good thing was that with his company, we finally managed to complete all this and escape Kaifeng successfully. Oh yeah, and I bought some delicious chow mein in the evening, it was really good!!! On the second day, in the morning, I went to get the take-out ordered for him the night before, there were soybean milk, steamed dumpling, oil cakes and soup Hu. It was the first time he had soup Hu since he came to Henan Province 4 years ago, so I was happy that I could give him a good impression that soup Hu is very good. And good news in the morning was that there was no class for Structural Analysis 2, because there were too many students on their way home. Thus, we slept in until we woke up naturally after doing nucleic acid testing. In the afternoon, we went to Fat Dong lai market together and bought a lot of delicious food. We were shocked to see such a big meat loaf for the first time. Of course, we also got the mooncake that we had been longing for. Then we went to eat Shengjian, Su yumei cheese and so on. We also asked the market staff to take a group photo, which was super nice and we all loved it! Later, we went to the park together, where I finally learned the news I had been longing for, so I could get a scholarship and be accountable to our parents. Finally, we saw my high school and elementary school together. The afternoon was wonderful, but when we got back at night, we knew that the place where we lived was positive, and then we started to run away in the middle of the night, so sad. On the last day, we wrote a letter for each other as a goodbye when we left Xinxiang, and then, we fled the Emerald City through the underground garage to the high-speed railway station, where we waited for two hours in the cold wind before the station opened, which was really outrageous. Then, we parted ways, and I walked him to his until I couldn't see him.

NANJING TRIP

---

Dec 31–Jan 07, 8 days in total. We crossed the year 2023 together and started a new year. In Nanjing, we saw pigeons flying in circles and endless paulownia leaves falling. The road we have walked together, the scenery we have seen together, the food we have eaten together, here to look forward to the years and years.
